Getting Help [1]

First, read the documentation.

Please read the documentation [2] and make sure that your question hasn't already been answered.

Next, ask the community.

Mnemosyne has an active user community. Visit the forum/mailing list. [3]

Have an idea for a new feature in the software?

Suggest a new feature or vote on existing suggestions. [4]

Think you found a bug in the software?

Report bugs here. [5] Please make sure to list the exact steps that you followed to cause the error.

Have a suggestion regarding this website?

Would you like to comment specifically about this website and not the software itself? Send website feedback here. [6]
